EXPRESSION OF INTERESTS FOR EMPANELMENT OF CSOs/NGOS

The Namami Gange Programme is responsible for planning, financing, monitoring and co-ordination of activities for effective abatement of pollution and conservation of the River Ganga. At the State level U.P. State Ganga River Conservation Agency (UPSGRCA) has been set up as State Project Management Group (SPMG) under the Department of Urban Development, Govt. of U.P. to co-ordinate & implement the various activities of the Namami Gange Programme at State level, including those supported under the World Bank assisted Projects. Under the Namami Gange Programme, the State Programme Management Group has decided to further strengthen the management of sewer networks of Allahabad, Varanasi, Kanpur, Garhmukteshwar, Moradabad, Narora, Kannauj etc. To accomplish this task successfully, the State Project Management Group, Uttar Pradesh intends to empanel Civil Society Organisations (CSOs)/Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) to do the IEC work to motivate households to connect with sewer network of the respective districts. It is expected that CSOs/NGOs would interact with the households/ locals and convince them on behalf of the Executing Agencies/Urban Local Bodies to educate them on the benefits of the household connections. CSOs/NGOs have to ensure the success of implementation as well as desired 100% household connections so that no untreated water is discharged into the River Ganga. The payment is linked with the no. of household sewerage connection achieved by CSO/NGO by motivating people.

Interested CSOs/NGOs are invited to submit "Expression of Interest for hiring of Civil Society Organisations/Non-Governmental Organisations" to Project Director, U.P. State Ganga River Conservation Agency (UPSGRCA), 2, Lal Bahadur Shastri Marg, Lucknow 226001 up to 3:00PM by 12th October, 2017. The application with all enclosures can also be sent on the email: sms@sgrca.org. Any query related to this assignment may be sent through e mail: sms@sgrca.org and can be contacted on telephone No. 0522-2235542 before 27th September 2017.
