

Day 21

On Day 21 of ‘Ganga Aamantran Abhiyan’, it was time the rafting expedition team to continue their journey towards Ganga Sagar, from Konhara Ghat in Hajipur - the largest city and headquarters of Vaishali, Bihar. The morning started with the local administration and citizens taking up ownership of the ghat and cleaning it.

The team of the rafting expedition, led by Wing Commander Paramvir Singh, were given a grand send off by the residents and officials of Hajipur, and were met with as much enthusiasm at Patna. The city sacred for people from all over the country welcomed the expedition team with open arms and hearts.

The rafting team reached NIT Ghat of Patna, where they were met by Mr. Manan Ram, Director-DRDA, Mr. Saharsh Bhagat, DDC, and other officials, as well as the residents of the city.

The team and the residents ended the day anticipating the ‘Ganga Aamantran’ team to continue their journey the next day.
