

Day 22

On the morning of Day 22 of 'Ganga Aamantran Abhiyan', the rafting expedition team kicked off their journey from one of the most popular ghats of Patna - Gandhi Ghat. The ghat that saw the last rituals of Mahatma Gandhi, today saw the continuation of an epic journey. Mr. Manan Ram, Director-DRDA and Mr. Om Prakash, BUDCO, honoured the team before the journey and presented them with a memento.

The expedition team, led by Wing Commander Paramvir Singh, then were sent off with warm hearts by Mr. Manan Ram, Director-DRDA, Mr. Om Prakash, BUDCO, and the residents.

The rafting team then reached Mohiuddinagar, a notified area in Samastipur district of Bihar, which was earlier known as Sheher Dharhara, and were welcomed by the Hon'ble Minister of State, Mr. Nityanand Rai.
